PHILADELPHIA, July 4.

By the Snow Anna, Captain Livingston, in 33 Days from Lisbon, we are favoured with a London Paper of the 12th of May, from which we have the following Advices, viz.

Paris April 29. By decree of the Parliament of Rouen the Court, the arrest of the Parliament of Rouen was ordered to be burnt by the hands of the common hangman, as a seditious libel, infringing upon the royal authority, and the laws of the realm, as tending to render the King suspicious of the sentiments of the Magistrates, to shake the loyalty of the people, to withdraw their obedience, and as falsely attributed to the said Parliament.

Elbing, April 17. We have received advice, that the Russian army, under Count Romanow, is in full march. His magazine is immense. Poland is taxed to furnish him with 34,000 bullocks of oats, 3084 last of wheat, and 25,000 carriages.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Berlin to his friend in London, dated April 27.

"I have reason to think that the cloud gathering in Germany will not disturb the present peace of the Empire. My barometer is the actual state of security and tranquility in which the King of Prussia remains, for from the knowledge I have of that Prince's temper and way of acting, I have reason to think, that he is entertained but the remotest suspicion of any hostile intention against him, or dangerous consequence to his natural ally Russia, from the present armaments of the House of Austria, he would not be so inactive, and appear so unconcerned. Besides, the good understanding which apparently subsists at this moment, between him and the Court of Vienna, confirms me the more in this opinion, and induces me to be so persuaded that he is no stranger to the present views and designs of that power, which tend, it is thought, with the mutual consent of the Courts of Berlin and Petersburg, to restore tranquility to Poland, and to oblige the Turks to a peace with Russia, who, it is assured, had declared her inclination to the Court of Vienna, to treat with the Porte on terms so moderate and equitable, as gave the greatest satisfaction to the Austrian Court. A very short time, however, will soon discover the end and intention of the present immense warlike preparations of the House of Austria, with regard to which the greatest secrecy is observed at Vienna."

Extract of a letter from the Hague, May 3.

"If some letters from Madrid may be relied on, there seems to be a coldness between the Courts of Madrid and Versailles, occasioned, it is said, by the King of Spain having been informed, that the French King has some thoughts of re-establishing the Jesuits within his dominions; a step which hath so much affected the Spanish Monarch, that he hath sent orders to his Ambassador, resident at Paris, to declare to the Court of Versailles, that if it should take the resolution of re-establishing that society in its states, at a time when affairs are in so good a train to annihilate totally that pernicious society, by whose destructive machinations France, preferably to all other kingdoms, hath so severely suffered, his Catholic Majesty will find himself obliged to break the treaty, known by the name of The Family Compact, and to declare that he will no longer, in any manner, be bound by it; also that he will recall his Ambassador from Paris. If this is true, as these letters assure us it is, his Most Christian Majesty will re-consider this matter before he determines to recal the disciples of Loyola into his kingdom."

[There are no London Dates between the 4th and 20th of May, in which Time there is no doubt that

The Parliament was prorogued and the Lord Mayor & Alderman Oliver discharged.]

LONDON, May 10.

The Lord Mayor finding himself seized yesterday morning with a slight fit of the gout, by the advice of his friends, set out for his house at Dulwich, to spend a few days there for the recovery of his health, and Sir William Stephenson sat at the Mansion-house in his room.

Yesterday Mr. Alderman Oliver visited Earl Temple, at his house in Pall-mall, and afterwards paid his respects to other Noblemen, &c.

Sir Fletcher Norton had a grand levee at his house on Wednesday evening, where the mobility and others that paraded the streets that evening repaired, and testified their respects, by breaking most of the windows.

The mob on Wednesday Night broke a great number of windows in the Strand, and left not a whole pane in Somerset-house Coffee-room.

The reason assigned for breaking open the iron gates at Serjeant's Inn, is, that the populace got intelligence that the Recorder of London, who lives there, had given directions to have the gates shut much sooner than usual, to prevent any illuminations in the Inn.

Wednesday night a desperate fray happened between the mob and a party of chairmen, in St. James's Square, when two of the former, it is said, were killed on the spot, and several, on both sides, dangerously wounded.

May 11. There are several letters in town which positively affirm, that the interior provinces of Russia are almost depopulated, by means of the wars, notwithstanding the success of their arms.

They write from Birmingham, that 15,000 muskets, with bayonets and cartouch boxes, were sent from thence in waggons, to be shipped at Bristol for St. Petersburg, on the Empress's account the 24th ult.

When the Lord Mayor came out of the Tower, he gave ten guineas to the Warders, as a compliment for the civility they showed to him and his friends, whilst he was under confinement.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, May 5.

"Letters just received from Paris mention, that it was never more necessary for persons there to devote themselves to the God of Silence than at this time. Three persons, who now probably regret not having kept their lips sealed, were lately arrested, and conducted to prison, as they were coming out of the Place. Two others met with the same fate as they were quitting the Chatelet."

Last Wednesday night the mob assembled before Lord North's house in Downing-street, and broke several of the windows; likewise the fan light, and the two lamps over the door.

Sir F. N. came home not above half an hour before the mob assembled in his court-yard; they threw stones so fast at the windows, that the family were obliged to remain all the time in the back apartments.

A Gentleman sent a complimentary card yesterday morning to Sir Fletcher Norton, desiring to know how he did after the riot; to which he is said to have returned for answer, "That he was very easy, for he had not one PANE left."

This morning their Majesties came from Richmond to the Queen's-Palace, where Lord Rochford attended to deliver an express to the King, which arrived last night in haste from the Hague.

On Wednesday night his Majesty's wardrobe at Richmond was broke open, and robbed of valuables, to the amount of 6000 l.

We are assured that some very important secrets, relative to the expenditure of a large sum of the national treasure, have been brought to light, within these few days, by the indefatigable zeal of some patriotic members.

We are assured, by recent letters from Paris, that the States-General have presented a Remonstrance to the French King, touching the injustice done to the subjects of Holland, who hold annuities in that kingdom.

A loan of 500,000 l. is now negotiating by an agent in London, at 3 per Cent. for the King of Prussia.

The sudden change of affairs in Lisbon, in favour of the English traders, we are assured was effected by a Remonstrance sent from our Court by Captain Belfour, in the Venus Frigate.

It is a fact, that the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor received yesterday a letter, highly approving his conduct with respect to the Printers, from a person in a distinguished office at Court.

The Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, since his arrival at the Mansion-house, has received upwards of 200 cards of congratulation from the Minority, on his release from the Tower; to all which his Lordship returned suitable answers.

We hear that the ball and entertainment, intended to be given by the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor at the Mansion-house, will be on the 20th instant.

Thursday commissions were sent to Birmingham and Sheffield, to the amount of 50,000 l. for goods to be got ready for exportation to America.

PHILADELPHIA, July 4.

Extract of a Letter from London, May 1, 1771.

"Things continue exactly in the same state as they have done for some time past: The Peace is now become, in all probability, permanent, both the Spaniards and we having actually disarmed. Fifteen Ships of the Line were ordered the other Day to be paid off; and yet it is intended to keep in Commission a much larger Number of Ships than we had before our late Armament. It now appears pretty evidently, that neither the Spaniards nor the French meant, in earnest, to break with us upon this Occasion. Happily for Great-Britain, the intended State of France, and the various Causes of Discontent, which rather encrease then abate among the People, and which actually threaten to terminate in some great Convulsion, leave us little Room to dread any Disturbance from that Quarter for a great while to come. And, so far as I am able to judge, the present Ministry, and every Thing else, respecting the Public, will remain for some Time in their present Situation."

"The Papers will inform you, that our Patriots are now falling out among themselves. The Seceders from the Supporters of the Bill of Rights now call themselves The Constitutional Society. Townsend, Sawbridge and Oliver, are in Opposition to Wilkes and his personal Friends, the latter refusing to stand along with him for the Office of Sheriff next Midsummer Day. Horne & Wilkes, in particular, are at Enmity; which ever Party prevails, it must end in their Destruction. Wilkes himself is indefatigable in acting his Part; but I am convinced his utmost Efforts will be fruitless, and that his Glory is upon the Wain."

"American Affairs have not been so much as mentioned of late. Probably they will be resumed next Session, and some Regulations regarding Trade proposed, that will tend to our mutual Benefit."

"We have had a very long and hard Winter, and hardly any Appearance of Spring yet; so very backward a Season I never remember before. The Price of all the Necessaries of Life are nearly doubled within these few Years. Notwithstanding which, as Money is much circulated, and every Body in full Employment, we hear very few Complaints."

NEWPORT, July 8.

Last Friday night arrived here Capt. George Brown, in 14 days from Edentown North-Carolina, and acquaints us that two days before he sailed, a letter was received there from one Johnson, near the place where Governor Tryon beat the Regulators, informing that the Regulators had rallied again, surounded Governor Tryon and his party, and taken him and a considerable number of his men prisoners; which news was so far credited, that it gave the Governor's friends great uneasiness, but was joyfully received by the enemies of Tyranny and Oppression, and friends to the Regulators, who it is said are three quarters of the people throughout the province.

In North-Carolina, a Dollar passes for 8/ and we are assured, that the Sheriffs there often sell fine fat cattle at 12/ a head, and the best sheep at 2/ (which is one Dollar and three quarters for cattle, and a quarter of a Dollar for a fine fat sheep) to pay rates: and that very frequently, after the Sheriffs have collected large sums, they push off, robber-like, to some of the back parts of Virginia, South-Carolina, Georgia, &c. and leave the people to pay the whole of their taxes over again. Now is it possible for any man, unless he possess the soul of a Cannibal, to wish success to an administration so corrupt, so absolutely void of humanity, and every christian virtue, as that of North-Carolina!!!

BOSTON, July 15.

Wednesday the Select Men of the Town visited the Public Schools, at whose invitation His Excellency the Governor, His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, several of his Majesty's Council, and a Number of other principal Gentlemen, with some of the Rev. Ministers, attended, who all expressed great Satisfaction in the good order and Proficiency of the Youth in the respective Schools, which did Honor to their several Instructions.

The Ship Aaron, John Goff, Master, from Boston to North-Carolina, was spoke with last Monday night 15 Leagues from Cape-May, 11 Days out, all well.

L O N D O N, April 18.

The Premier Yesterday received the following Letter, from very respectable Authority:

"I have great Pleasure in informing you that a political Convulsion has been felt at St. James's, not unlike the first Shock of an Earthquake. — The King himself at last sees how necessary it is to give way, and whole ministerial System totters. When Lord North asked the King whether the whole of the Prince of Wales's Household was fixed, he was told, with a gracious Shrug, that every Thing was settled. As soon as the Session is finished, he must retire with Dishonor, and those, who are nearest his Majesty, see plainly that he is determined upon an entire Change of Measures. Dissolution of Parliament will certainly take Place, and then perhaps the King may recover the Affections of his Subjects: Z Z."

The following extraordinary paragraph is taken from the York Courant, dated April 16. — Last Wednesday morning a gentleman's servant in this city had occasion to go into the kitchen, before the family were up, where he saw a cat lying upon a table, which he knew had kittens: his curiosity led him to take her up, to see how many she had, but, to his great surprise, found six young rats (a little larger than mice) sucking her. He took them away, but she pulled them to her again with her feet, and when he took them quite from her, she leaped in his face, so delicious was she of preserving the favourite brood. What is more remarkable, the same cat is a very good one at destroying rats or mice. Her kittens, and the dame of the rats, were found dead; so it is supposed the old rat had killed the kittens, and the cat had killed the rat, and had taken the young rats to suck her! The servant threw the rats to the other cats, who devoured them immediately.

A CASE for COUNCIL.

Law Against Privilege.

MR. Law hath, for time immemorial, been in possession of a freehold estate, to which are annexed many rights and immunities, and continued to hold the same uncontested and unmolested, till a few days ago, when Mr. Privilege, without serving him or his tenants with any ejectment or legal proceeding, entered upon the premises by force and violence, turned out him and his tenants, and keeps possession of the same, in open defiance of the said Mr. Law, who is the only rightful owner thereof.

Question. How, in what manner, and in what Court of Justice, can Mr. Law proceed against Mr. Privilege to recover his said estate, as Mr. Privilege hath openly declared he is above all Courts of Judicature, and will keep possession of the same by force of arms, and be both Judge and Jury in his own cause?

Charlestown, (S. Carolina) June 17.

About the middle of last month, a party of Creek Indians, going to war, met a party of Choctaws on the same errand; a battle ensued, in which nine Creeks were killed, and it is said not more than two or three Choctaws. Some weeks before the skirmish abovementioned, a party of Creeks from the Alabama Fort, fell in with a party of Choctaws, three of whom they killed, and took one man and three women prisoners; a few days after their return home, they burnt the man in the Tuskegee Town; the women they keep as slaves. All the appearances of a peace between the Creeks and Choctaws are vanished.

The late excessive rains in this province have done considerable damage to the crop now in the ground.

NEWBERN, (North-Carolina) June 7.

Since our last, the Hon. SAMUEL CORNELL, Esq; returned home from our Troops in Orange County, and brings a certain Account of the Regulators being entirely broken and dispersed, and that near 13 or 1400 of them have laid down their Arms, taken the Oaths of Allegiance to his Majesty, and returned to their Habitations in Peace.

His Excellency the Governor, after the Battle, marched into the Plantations of Husbands, Hunter, and several others of the outlawed Chiefs of the Regulators, and laid them waste; they having most of them escaped from the Battle, and are since fled. A Reward of 1000 Acres of Land, and 100 Dollars, is offered by his Excellency for Husbands, Hunter, Butler, and Rednap Howell, and several of the Regulators have been permitted to go in Quest of them, on leaving their Children Hostages.

The Lands of the outlawed Regulators are to be sold by the Sheriff of the County where they lie, agreeable to Act of Assembly; and many of them are of great Value, being perhaps the best Lands on this Continent, particularly Hermon Husbands's, who had growing on his Plantation about 50 Acres of as fine Wheat as perhaps ever grew, with Clover Meadow equal to any in the Northern Colonies; but insatuated, unhappy Man, about 400 Head of Horses, which were turned in on it by our Troops, in a few days left it without a Spear of Corn, Grass, or Herbage growing, and without a House or Fence standing! A melancholy Consideration, but made necessary by the Laws of War.

Thus has his Excellency the Governor, at the Head of a handful of Troops, compared to the Numbers of the Regulators, thro' the immediate Hand of Divine Providence, broke this dangerous and daring Conspiracy, that every day increased, and threatened to overwhelm this once flourishing Province in one Scene of horrid Confusion and lawless Fury! For who but the Almighty Ruler of Heaven and Earth could guide the Balls from the Rifles of the Regulators to fly over the Heads of our Troops in the Day of Battle; as they did by ten Thousands; which otherwise, as they were at least five Times the Number of our Troops, must have cut them off by Hundreds, and left the Field a dismal Scene of Blood and Carnage.

P R O V I D E N C E, July 6.

On Wednesday last was ordained to the Work of the Ministry, at Warren, in Bristol County (by the unanimous Choice of the Baptist Church and Congregation in that Town) the Reverend CHARLES THOMPSON, A. B. the first Son of Rhode-Island College that has yet engaged in the sacred Office.

Capt. Hammond, who arrived at Newport on Monday last from North-Carolina, brings Advice, that Governor Tryon, with his Party, is returned to Newbern.

P O R T S M O U T H, July 12.

We hear from Damiscotta, that about three Weeks ago, three Men being in a Canoe, fishing, about half a Mile from the Shore, a large Shark came along Side, and after going several Times round the Canoe, came up and took the Man standing in the Middle, overboard, bit him in two Pieces and swallowed both Parts; afterwards came up to the Canoe again, when the other two, being greatly terrified, hove over all their Fish, and laid themselves down on the Bottom, on which the Shark made towards a Boat, lying at a little Distance, and luckily one of the People had a Gun, and on the Shark's coming up along Side, shot him instantly dead. They afterwards towed him, and took out the two Parts of the Man, and buried them. He left a sorrowful Widow and three small Children to lament his unhappy Death.

B O S T O N, July 15.

Last Saturday failed the Ship Bolton-Packet, Capt. Nathaniel B. Lyde, for London; in which went Passenger, HENRY MARCHANT, Esq; Attorney-General of the Colony of Rhode-Island, and joint Agent with JOSEPH SHERWOOD, Esq; for that Colony, at the Court of Great-Britain.

We hear from Lunenburg, that as Lieut. Samuel Reed of that Place was driving a loaded Waggon thro' Shirley, on Monday the first of this Instant, he fell from the Tongue on which he was standing, before the Wheels; which running lengthways over his Back, broke several of his Ribs, and so bruised his Face and Body, that notwithstanding the best Help which speedily came to his Assistance, he languished 'till the Saturday Night following, and then died to the great Grief of his Family, and the Loss of the Town of which he was a very valuable Inhabitant. — He was a Man of a meek and quiet Spirit, which he manifested during his Confinement, by great Patience and Resignation; and tho' it was his general Persuasion that he should not recover, he did not appear to be terrified with the Thought of Death; and when it came, seemed to have an easy Passage from this to the eternal World. — He has left a sorrowful Widow and seven Children, at an Age when he might have been very serviceable to them.

We hear the Result of the late Council at Rutland is, that Capt. Isaac Stone of Oakham, makes large Concessions to the Rev. Mr. Buckminster, but that Mr. Buckminster is acquitted in the following Words: "This Council are of Opinion that the Rev. Joseph Buckminster's Character stands fair and wholly unblemished, by any Thing exhibited to this Council against him, by Capt. Stone." — The Council likewise, being authorized by the Parties, adjudged Capt. Stone to defray the public Expences, which he did accordingly.

Married.] Mr. Martin Bicker, Hatter, to Miss Sally Jones, Daughter to Capt. Daniel Jones.

It is worthy of Note, That Mrs. Hannah MacKerwethy, who lately died at Dedham, left to her Relations the sum of 1200l. which she earned with her own Hands at the Spinning Wheel: When she first set out in Life she had 20l. left her by her Father; and while she carried on Spinning, maintained herself, and when the late Meeting-House was built gave ten Dollars for that purpose, and 20l. to the Minister or Church, all these exclusive of the 1200l.

We hear a Letter is in Town which mentions the Arrival of the famous Gov. Tryon at New-York. Died at Chelsea, Capt. Richard Watts.

Died suddenly at Cambridge, Mrs. Kent, Widow of Mr. Kent, who died about 6 Weeks ago.

T r o v e r i a n, April 29. 1771.

AN Indian Girl belonging to Robert Dennis, of Tiverton, went away on the Night of the 10th of January last; and after a few Days, some evil minded People pretended she was dead, and gave hints that her Master and Mistress were the Cause thereof, which so inflamed all the Indians in the Neighbourhood, that they mustered together, to search for the supposed dead Girl, but to no Purpose: — Whereupon some English Volunteers joined the Black Regiment, ranging the Woods, searching Brooks, &c. but all in vain; then to the Authority they went for a Warrant to search his House, but the Authority mistrusting their evil Intentions, took Two of his Neighbours with him and went to see Mr. Dennis, who gave them free Liberty to search his House as much as they pleased, which they did, but could not discover the least Appearance of Evil. — The above Affair having made much Noise, and caused great Clamour and uneasiness in said Dennis's Neighbourhood; this is to give public Notice, that, after an Absence of 5 Months and Ten Days, the said Girl, of her own Accord, is safe returned home to her Master, to the great Joy of many well-minded People.

Others addressing Gov. Hutchinson
To Wm. W. in Governor in Chief in, and over, the Province of N. C.

The ADDRESS of the People called Quakers at their general, or yearly Meeting, for Worship, and transacting the Affairs of our Society, held on Rhode Island, for N. England by Adjournment from the 13th to the 17th Day of the Sixth Month 1771 inclusive.

DIVERS of us having heard of thy great Fame, since the King appointed thee to the chief seat of government in the Province of N. C. how thou hast made justice and equity the rule of thy actions, and how thou hast inclined the hearts of the Representatives, of the good people there, to cause a magnificent Palace to be erected to support the dignity of a Governor, and the honor of the province, and to do many other things agreeable to Thee, and how wondrously thou hast exerted thyself not only to punish, but destroy, all who dare complain of that despotic tyranny, and oppression, which our principles lead us to submit to, and our inclinations to promote. Finding ourselves led by the spirit at this time, to follow the fashion of this part of the world, and to address those in high stations who are patrons of despotic power in themselves, and superiors, and of passive obedience, in all below them, and having addressed one of thy brethren remarkable for this character, think ourselves bound in justice, and impartiality, to acknowledge thy merits, though the same justice and impartiality require us to give the preference to him. Thou has taken up the carnal weapon, and imbrued thine own hands in the blood of those who turn'd when trod on. He has had the art to withhold his hands from touching the carnal weapon, while the business has been done without it, and the perpetrators of murder screen'd from the penalty of the law: He has more completely ruin'd the constitution of his government, (and there he was "born and educated too," which adds much to his merit) without putting them to the expence of raising an army, or himself to the hazard of being shot. It is true, the King has been induc'd to send both a fleet and army there, to receive from their good Governor, the surrender of their strong holds, and places of defence, and thoroughly to subjugate, and oblige his best subjects, (but represented to him as his worst) to submit to the tyranny before-mentioned; but the expence of that is provided for another day, as is that of his good Governor's support; and after all this He has play'd his game dexterously enough to secure such a party as has procur'd him adulation and flattery from some of all ranks and persuasions, even from a few of the "ministers of the congregational church," who should entertain sentiments of liberty to have restrain'd them, and also from our persuasion whose professed "simplicity, and godly sincerity," should abhor such a conduct, and who can have no motive to plead, but what may arise from the distant hope, that it may sometime hereafter be his interest to turn to our persuasion. Thy being appointed to the chief seat of Government in a neighbouring province, is very agreeable and satisfactory to us. We earnestly desire that the two Governments we have thus distinguished, may as they seem to be united in design, be united in affection, and answer fully the great purpose of their appointment; and among other things, protect in your several jurisdictions, our persuasion, in all their enthusiastic peculiarities; and especially secure to us the effects of that pretended liberty of conscience, which was really designed to lay the burden of our defence on our poor fellow-subjects, while we enjoy the fruits of peace in security.

With sincere love to Thee, we conclude, and remain thy assured Friends.

Signed in and on Behalf of our said yearly Meeting, by our Clerk.

Duxbury, July 5, 1771.

A Very malignant putrid Fever has, for some Time past, much prevailed in this Town; about 150 Persons, chiefly Children, having had it in the Course of a few Months; to a considerable Proportion of whom it has proved fatal. More especially of late its Malignity having very much increased. And in one Family in particular (Mr. Benjamin Wadsworth's) five Children out of Six have died of it in the short Space of a Week; the only one surviving being now dangerously sick.

This Fever seems to differ from what has been usually called the Scarlet Fever only in Point of Malignity; the Appearances in those who have it favourably being in all Respects the same.

It is remarkable that tho' it has made its Appearance in every Part of this Town, scarce a Family or Person in any of the neighbouring Towns have as yet been visited with it.
